

BOOK DISCUSSION

Our book club was held on August 15th at 1:00 PM at the Temple. This month's book was Day after Night by Anita Diamont and as you can see we had a large group of women present and a very lively discussion. Some of us liked the book, some of us loved the book and some of us hated it. Joan Sircus, who is seated was one of us who hated it. She gave some very cogent arguments to support her position. I liked it a lot which is somewhere in between how most of the women felt.

The book club at Temple Beth Kodesh is a testament to the wisdom and wonderment of the women who come. Most of us are members of Sisterhood but, as you can see, we welcome all members of the community. Every woman has something to offer and it is a true pleasure to listen to the comments and opinions of each participant. Ora Stock was there and Ora spent some time at Atlit which is the prison where most of the action takes place in Day After Night. She had so much to offer and we appreciate Ora's and every one else's contributions.

Our next Book Club will be on October 29th. The book we will be discussing has not been decided but if you have an idea please give me a call. It does not have to be specifically Jewish but it does have to be either ethically pertinent or of special interest to women. Not that we wouldn't love to welcome men. We would!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

I want to thank every woman who participated: Jane Wechsler, Lynn Karten, Sherry Wallet, Elaine Gold, Diane Garret, Barbara Goldfarb, Joan Sircus and our guests.

Exec. VP and book club facilitator.
